How to Help Students Evaluate Their Performance

It is important that students know how to evaluate their performance in classrooms. They need to be taught what to look for an how to evaluate what they find.

Student Performance Self-Evaluation Form

Name _____ Date _____

Seldom	Sometimes	Often	Rate the following six items as "seldom," "sometimes," or "often."
☐	☐	☐	I contributed ideas to the classroom discussion.
☐	☐	☐	I encouraged others as we worked.
☐	☐	☐	I helped give direction to the work.
☐	☐	☐	I followed the direction of others.
☐	☐	☐	I helped make decisions and solve problems.
☐	☐	☐	I took risks by exploring things that were new to me.

What do I contribute to the learning process? _____

What is the most interesting thing about what I did today?

What decisions did I have to make while we were working, and how did I try to solve the problems I faced?

What have I learned from this particular experience, and how can I apply what I have learned to other classes and everyday life?

From Dropout Prevention Tools @ 2003 by Franklin Schargel, Eye On Education, 6 Depot Way West, Larchmont NY 10538.
Permission granted to reproduce for educational purposes; not for resale or repackaging. Special Offer for DropINs:
Use coupon code KSDPIN11 to receive 10% off any Franklin Schargel title when ordering at www.eyeoneducation.com.