Institution	Code of Behavior	Bullying and Student Abuse
Baker University	Yes, code of behavior	Addressed in ED 345 school nurse and a social worker present, parent panel also. ED 343 video on bullying and reflections on scenarios. ED 243 abuse is covered. Both topics addressed in graduate level programs.
Benedictine College	Yes, code of ethics	Addressed in several courses but in detail in ED 462.
Bethany College	Yes, has a code of ethics.	Discussed in two methods courses, management course and plans to work with bullying through CAPS in Salina for presentations to candidates.
Bethel College	Yes, code of ethics, and a statement on integrity	Addressed in EDU 210 and 310,and student teaching seminar. Social worker, teacher and administrator speakers are brought to classes and in field experiences as additional resources.
Central Christian College	Yes, a code of conduct signed by students	No specific resource, but discussed through the program.
Emporia State University	Yes, code of ethics	Addressed in specific courses including Classroom Management, Teaching Diverse Populations, required Teach Tolerance Website, class discussions, Stop Bullying Now Resource Kit
Fort Hays State University	Yes, code of ethics	Addressed in courses. Also have an action plan to begin a research project on bullying prevention and role of IHE and College.
Friends University	Yes, code of ethics	Bullying/abuse is addressed in Cornerstone course required prior to admissions into teacher ed program.
Haskell Indian Nations University	Yes, code of ethics	Addressed in courses-especially Senior Seminar
Kansas State University	Yes, code of ethics	PDS have bullying awareness programs, clinical instructors address during student teaching seminars and in coursework but in detail in educational psychology.

Kansas Wesleyan University	Yes, use KNEA's Code of Conduct, included in clinical practice handbook	Addressed in clinical practice seminar and a presentation from KNEA's District Coordinator
McPherson College	Yes, a code of ethics and professionalism	Addressed in Intercultural Education—discussion of types, signs of bullyimg, problem solving strategies, videos, scenarios
MidAmerica Nazarene University	Yes, code of ethics and professionalism	Addressed in Classroom Management course, discussion, case studies
Newman University	Yes, code of ethics and behavior	Bullying/abuse are addressed in courses, videos
Ottawa University	Yes, code of ethics and dispositions	Bullying/abuse addressed in courses, videos, facilitated by counselor or social worker, discussion of case studies
Pittsburg State University	Yes, code of ethics and expectations	Addressed in Explorations in Education, research project, discussions strategies
Southwestern College	Yes, code of ethics document	Bullying/abuse addressed in methods courses with speakers from KNEA and a school social worker.
Sterling College	Yes, code of behavior during clinicals, not outside the classroom. Expected to follow STEP Goal5:Servant Leadership and Professional Attributes	Bullying/abuse addressed in SE 210-Discussions, videos and PPT.
Tabor College	Yes, code of ethics	Required course ED 205-Child and Adolescent Development, MS Counselor presents research on bullying and bullying prevention program.
University of Kansas	Yes, code of conduct/dispositions, also signed by candidate	Required courses 455 and 703 to address bullying and abuse. Also a summer prof dev courses deals specifically with bullying.
University of Saint Mary	Yes, code of ethics	Addressed in foundation courses, method courses and in clinical experiences. Use case studies, school law issues, websites and curriculum that addresses bullying and abuse.

Washburn University	Yes, code of ethics for undergrads, student teaching and graduates	Addressed with panels of teachers, administrators speaking on bully, how to respond and how to be proactive. Student Teachers and EPIC students are told the importance of following school policies where they are placed.
Wichita State University	Yes, code of conduct	Addressed in Intro course, student teaching seminars, field experiences, videos