What is FCCLA?

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) is a dynamic national student led leadership organization that helps young men and women become leaders and address important personal, family, work, and societal issues through Family and consumer Sciences Education. FCCLA has more than 220,000 members and nearly 7,000 chapters from 50 state associations and the District of Columbia, Puerto Rio, and the Virgin Islands. The organization has involved over ten million youth since 1945!

Our Mission

The mission of FCCLA is… To Promote personal growth and leadership development through Family and Consumer Sciences Education. Focusing on the multiple roles of family member, wage earner and community leaders members develop skills for life through character development, creative and critical thinking, interpersonal communication, practical knowledge and career preparation.

PURPOSES

1) To provide opportunities for personal development and preparation for adult life
2) To strengthen the function of the family as the basic unit of society
3) To encourage democracy through cooperative action in the home and community
4) To encourage individual and group involvement in helping achieve global cooperation and harmony
5) To promote greater understanding between youth and adults
6) To provide opportunities for making decisions and for assuming responsibilities
7) To prepare for the multiple roles of men and women in today's society
8) To promote Family and Consumer Sciences and related occupations

National Programs

National programs are intense areas of project work for FCCLA chapters nationwide. These programs contain educational material, fun activities, and exciting awards. At the state level, winners are selected for their projects in specific national programs. The national programs are:
