The District's Accomplishments and Challenges

Accomplishments:
USD 286 has met AYP each year. Provide At-Risk and all other students with instructional services including: individual tutoring during the day and evening. Provided computer-based course recovery for failed courses for junior high and high school students. Updated facilities and computer technology. Faculty involvement in technology programs used in instruction.

Challenges:
Declining enrollment and fuel costs along with continuing to find ways to meet all students needs.
