The District's Accomplishments and Challenges

Accomplishments:
Wathena students test scores continue to improve. The district met or exceeded all AYP requirements. Graduation and attendance rates remain very high. The district has a very strong library and technology programs. The district takes pride in the fact that they are preparing their students to be lifelong learners in today's technological world.

Challenges:
The district is facing a third straight year of decreasing state funding and decreasing student enrollment. The district is facing the task of maintaining its educational programs with less money. Cuts in personnel have occurred since last year.
