Final Legal Max letters available online June 20

Final legal max letters dated June 22 are currently posted on the School Finance website and can be downloaded at this link: <http://www.ksde.org/Agency/Fiscal-and-Administrative-Services/School-Finance/Legal-Max-General-Fund-School-Finance-Studies>. Under the heading FY22 Final Legal Max Letters, locate the group with your district's letter, and if you choose to print, manually change the Printer Default to select "Print Current Page," otherwise you will print letters for all districts.

The final legal max letter reflects the district's final legal maximum general fund budget, audited enrollment, actual special education state aid, and actual virtual credits as submitted on Local Effort. Carefully review your legal max amount. Final special education state aid affects general fund budget, and may affect the supplemental general fund budget if higher than 2008-09 special education state aid

A final legal max letter is also being mailed to all superintendents and board presidents.

If you have questions on the legal max letters, feel free to contact School Finance:

Reasonable Suspicion Training

The Kansas Highway Patrol and the Kansas State Department of Education School Bus Safety Unit are offering Reasonable Suspicion Training for CDL (Commercial Driver's License) Supervisors. This training is federally mandated for all individuals who supervise individuals required to have a CDL as a condition of their employment.

If your school district or school bus contractor operates a school/activity bus that requires the driver to have a CDL, and you supervise that driver, you are required by federal law to have Reasonable Suspicion Training for supervisors.

Federal Regulation, 49 CFR 382.603 requires schools/employers to provide this training to all persons who supervise CDL drivers subject to alcohol and drug testing. The purpose of this training is to enable supervisors to determine whether reasonable suspicion exists to require a driver to take an alcohol and or drug test. This regulation requires the training to include at least 60 minutes of training on alcohol misuse and 60 minutes on controlled substances use.

This training is designed to meet this mandated training requirement. Attendees will receive a certificate of attendance. This training is a one-time training requirement. If you are required this training, and have had this training in the past, and have documentation you do not need to attend.

July 13, 2022 - 9:00 am to 12:00 pm

Room 101

Topeka, Kansas

Any school district/school bus contractor employee is welcome to attend even if you have had the training in the past or are not required this training.
