

New Approaches to Classroom Discipline and School Climate: Behavioral Interventions that Align with MTSS

Focus of this Workshop:

- New trends in evidence-based student management, including restorative practices.
- Improving school climate by strengthening community and student accountability.
- Specific techniques for immediate application.
- Interactive participatory learning environment.

Learn:

- Practical applications for each tier of the MTSS model.
- Effective interventions for bullying.
- Research and results from schools using restorative practices.
- Easy steps for implementing restorative practices in your classroom or school.

November 17th
Cost: FREE!
8:45am — 4:00pm
Bethel College
N. Newton, KS

December 7th
Cost: FREE!
8:45 am — 4:00 pm
SpringHill Suites
Lawrence, KS

Approved for Teacher Professional Development/Social Work CEUs

Leadership Team:

- Gary Flory:
Bethel College faculty, and KIPCOR director
- Joanne Katz:
Faculty, Missouri Western State University
- Jenny Muret-Bate:
Principal, Community Learning Center alternative school, Winfield
- Jan Petersen:
School psychologist, Wichita USD
- Kent Reed:
KSDE School Counseling Consultant
- Alison Replogle:
School Counselor, Smokey Valley USD
- Kirsten Zerger:
Bethel College faculty and KIPCOR director of education and training

SIGN UP NOW

Or go to: www.kipcor.org/Registration/SchoolClimate/

Questions? Contact Sheri Allhouse, Administrative Assistant at 316-284-5217

*Funding for this project is provided by the Kansas State Department of Education through the Safe and Supportive Schools Grant