Introduction

This “deconstructed” HGSS rubric is the product of a team of KSDE staff who came together to create a simplified, learner-centered, four-point rubric. The included content exemplars have been created to provide possible assessment models.

For the 2021-2022 school year, the HGSS Assessment will be a required field test to be conducted by all districts in Kansas. Beginning with the 2022-2023 school year, the HGSS Assessment will be required to be conducted each year by all districts in Kansas.

The Alternate Kansas History, Government and Social Studies (HGSS) Assessment has three parts for you to complete:

1. Recognize and evaluate.
2. Analyze and draw conclusions.
3. Investigate and connect.

The rubric will help you as you plan your project around your compelling question.

Supporting the Claim/Thesis with Evidence
