ACTION ON RECOMMENDATIONS FOR KANSAS EDUCATION SYSTEMS ACCREDITATION (KESA)

The State Board of Education approved the KESA in 2016 as the new model to accredit schools in Kansas. The KESA shifts accreditation from schools to the district/system level as well as moves accreditation from a yearly event to a five-year improvement model approach. Four systems in the current cycle for accreditation review were presented for action. Director of Teacher Licensure and Accreditation Mischel Miller and Assistant Director Jeannette Nobo answered questions about the accreditation process. Comments included annual review visits (not just every five years), availability of data at any time, and systems' work to remedy any identified deficiencies. The Accreditation Review Council is a group of field representatives responsible for reviewing documentation, data and progress reports, and recommending a status to the State Board. Mr. McNiece moved to accept the recommendations of the Accreditation Review Council and award the status of accredited to USD 259 Wichita, USD 393 Solomon, USD 491 Eudora and Kansas School for the Deaf. Dr. Horst seconded. Motion carried 9-1 with Mr. Roberts in opposition. (See “Requests for Future Agenda Items” section regarding proposed discussion topics).

Institutions of higher education utilize program standards to develop their preparation programs and ensure continuous monitoring and improvement. The program focuses on behavioral health partnership between the school district and Community Mental Health Center(s) to benefit students and families. The program reports 3,009 students received services in 2019-20, just one of several measurable data points. In addition to the staff update, two school districts — Leavenworth USD 453 and Wabaunsee USD 329 — shared how the program has benefitted their students with availability of a school-based therapist, intervention services, crisis response and reduction in office referrals. DISCUSSION ON GUIDANCE FOR REINTEGRATION AND REOPENING SCHOOL FOR FALL
Dr. Brad Neuenswander and Craig Neuenswander reported on current work to prepare schools for safely reopening buildings this fall and to give districts instructional options in the event that school is disrupted again. When the COVID-19 pandemic resulted in school buildings being closed this spring, emergency Continuous Learning Plans were developed to complete the remainder of the school year. Guidance being created now has a different focus and is regarded as an accountability model.

Approximately 700 volunteers — led by educators, health officials, KSDE staff and others — began in Stage 1 planning guidance for operations and instruction. Stage 2 involves an Oversight Committee, led by Valley Center Superintendent Cory Gibson and 2015 Kansas Teacher of the Year Shannon Ralph. Stage 3 involves guidance for implementation, including professional development and training.

Dr. Neuenswander explained that options for competency-based learning are organized by grade bands, focusing on STEAM (science, technology, engineering, arts and math) and the humanities. The operations side focuses on areas such as sanitation, transportation, spacing in classrooms, co-curricular activities, etc. Once the document “Navigating Change 2020” is complete and has been vetted, the information will be presented to the State Board at the July meeting before being released to school districts. During discussion, Board members asked about protection against litigation from Coronavirus claims, accountability for quality remote learning, inclusion of social-emotional support and auditing seat time. Commissioner Watson assisted with answering questions and providing clarification. Schools and local boards of education will decide how to use the “Navigating Change 2020” information.
Board members took a break from 10:37 to 10:47 a.m. Board member Jean Clifford disconnected from the meeting.

LEGISLATIVE MATTERS

Members took a preliminary look at budget options for education state aid programs in Fiscal Year 2022. Deputy Commissioner Dale Dennis explained that most major financial decisions were made by the courts and legislature. Mr. Dennis and Director of School Finance Craig Neuenswander reviewed each of the many categories of aid, provided a historical record of funding, and budget options for consideration. These program options for FY 2022 will be discussed next month as the State Board makes final budget recommendations to the Governor as required by statute.

Mrs. Waugh moved to enter into Executive Session to discuss the subject of an individual employee's performance, which is justified pursuant to the non-elected personnel exception under KOMA, in order to protect the privacy interest of the individual(s) to be discussed.
