Approval-

Introductions

Still are available positions open. Please send possibilities to David or Robyn.

Old business-most should have the first screening done. Some are doing 3 a year. Trouble sending through the EYA. Dr. Curtis, lcurtis@ksde.org if you have dyslexia questions. Continue to get familiar with the handbook.

New Business- Julie will be at the conference on day 2 to talk about remote testing option. How many students are signed up for remote testing? Shelly-45 please contact Julie, Jewing@ksde.org

Monitoring- beginning to trickle in, if not being monitored still have to do the 3 forms. Sign up genius. Link only went to those that are being monitored.

Webinars- maybe once a month. With some cohost. What are some ideas that would be helpful, Special ed(with attorney), motivating parents, orientation, parent involvement, non-motivated parents, truancy, physical education, 504, graduation changes, monitoring process. Keep short and to the point so that more people can join. Send ideas to Robyn and David.

ACT test-coming up. No questions

Legislative updates- virtual and open boarders? It will apply to virtual schools as well. You will need to have a policy. Large discussion about this topic. KSHSAA Bill- relax it will be taken care of. We don't take part time kids and why we don't, due to it funding. Reminder to contact your representatives, watch the Legislative Calendar and recorded sessions.

"Executive Board members noted there has been very little feedback on the proposed policy as published in the March KSHSAA Executive Board Meeting Minutes."

why did ingenuity not on the list? David "we are not privy to that yet."

Foster care- take those students, however, don't penalize me. The tighter they get the harder it is to help. Getting different criteria for these students. Needing a lot of changes so that we can serve this population. Another area of hurdles. Possibly coming up with a "Pass Idea".

Next meeting June 5th in Topeka and virtual @ 1:30

Motion to adjourn- mark moved, Brooke 2nd.
