Section IV. Low-Performing

Provide the following information about the approval or accreditation of your teacher preparation program.

Is your teacher preparation program currently approved or accredited?

Yes

If yes, please specify the organization(s) that approved or accredited your program:

State

NCATE

Other (specify: NCA)

Is your teacher preparation program currently under a designation as "low-performing" by the state (as per section 207(a) of the HEA of 2008)?

No

Section V. Technology

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction
Yes
- use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning
Yes
- use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning
Yes
- use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning
Yes

Provide a description of how your program prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of how your program prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

The COET conceptual framework (Goal V) articulates the unit's technology expectations for candidates: The Professional Educator integrates appropriate technology into the education process. Candidates demonstrate a sound knowledge of education technology in planning, designing, delivering, and evaluating effective learning experiences for all students.

The unit has established Technology Proficiencies that are aligned with the conceptual framework and national technology standards (NETS*T 3d). Technology Proficiencies are addressed in coursework and clinical practices, and assessed using the unit's Fort Hays State University Quality Assurance System (FQAS). Technology Proficiencies are also integrated into each teacher education methods course, and integrated into the Fort Hays State University Performance Assessment (FPA) at the end of program. Candidate performance relating to Technology Proficiencies is systematically documented at each unit transition point using the unit's Key Assessments.

All initial candidates are also required to take TECS 290: Introduction to Instructional Technology. This course teaches candidates how to model and apply the various instructional technologies to enhance instruction. Candidates are required to successfully complete this course prior to student teaching.

Teacher preparation programs engage candidates through a progression of field and clinical experiences that include the integration, assessment, and use of technology.

Technology needs and integration within programs are reviewed annually.

Section VI. Teacher Training

Does your program prepare general education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams

Yes

- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively

Yes

Provide a description of how your program prepares general education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

Systematic Performance Assessment System - The COET goals for developing professional educators are clearly articulated in the unit's conceptual framework. Key assessments are identified that measure each professional educator goal. Key Assessment data indicates candidates in initial and advanced teacher preparation programs demonstrate the professional and pedagogical knowledge and skills delineated in professional, state, and institutional standards to facilitate learning. In addition, surveyed employers and mentors describe 75% of all unit graduates as "Above Average" or "Far Above Average."

Does your program prepare special education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively

Yes

- participate as a member of individualized education program teams

Yes

- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively

Yes

Provide a description of how your program prepares special education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

Clearly Articulated Diversity Proficiencies - The COET diversity proficiencies address differences among groups of people and individuals based on culture, ethnicity, race, socioeconomic status, gender, exceptionalities, language, migrant status, religion, sexual orientation, and geographical area. Key assessment data indicate teacher candidates demonstrate the ability to help all students learn by providing a supportive environment for diverse learners and by demonstrating knowledge and use of multiple assessments and diagnostic techniques. Special education is not an initial licensure area in Kansas.

Section VII. Contextual Information

Please use this space to provide any additional information that describes your teacher preparation program(s). You may also attach information to this report card. The U.S. Department of Education is especially interested in any evaluation plans or interim or final reports that may be available.

The programs are reviewed by the KSDE. They were fully approved, with no areas for concern, in 2009. The programs were part of the onsite review by KSDE and NCATE in 2010. The unit is fully accredited. Data is regularly analyzed for program improvement purposes.
