Please provide any additional comments about or exceptions to the admissions information provided above:

Students must pass a Standardized Test requirement to be admitted into the undergraduate teacher education program. For all majors, Math, Reading, and Writing/English must be passed. For candidates in Elementary and Early Childhood Unified, they are additionally required to take the CBASE of Science and Social Studies. Students can be admitted conditionally into Teacher Education if there is a special circumstance where only one of the requirements has not been met and they have petitioned for College Exceptions Committee's Approval. Most "conditional" admits must have all T.E. admission requirements met by the end of the following semester.

For admissions into the Early Childhood Residency program (Masters of Arts in Teaching) students must:

- 1) Complete at least a BA/BS degree from an accredited higher education institution prior to entry into the program.
- 2) Have a degree in a field related to early childhood such as psychology, speech pathology, or social work.

Section IV Low-Performing

Provide the following information about the approval or accreditation of your teacher preparation program.

Is your teacher preparation program currently approved or accredited?

Yes

If yes, please specify the organization(s) that approved or accredited your program:

State
NCATE

Is your teacher preparation program currently under a designation as "low-performing" by the state (as per section 207(a) of the HEA of 2008)?

No

Section V Use of Technology

Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction
Yes
- use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning
Yes
- use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning
Yes
- use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning

Yes

Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

One of the unit's conceptual framework guiding principles is technology, and the college mission specifies an institutional culture that is technology rich. Faculty include use of technology within their syllabi. Faculty model the use of technology within their own teaching and require candidates to use technology as a teaching tool within their field-based experiences. Examples include the faculty use of Blackboard and other online tools for teaching content, web-enhanced learning, instructional media such as video and SMART Boards, social networking, interactive distance learning such as closed circuit electronic transmission, learning in virtual environments, Wiki-mediated mentoring and learning communities, coaching and collaborative feedback via interactive video conferencing, and, in some cases, use of assistive technologies to support learning of diverse student needs.

Section VI Teacher Training

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare general education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
No
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively
Yes

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares general education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

All WSU Professional Education programs provide that candidates systematically reflect upon and engage in professional practice with diverse students/clients (e.g., ethnicity, race, social-economic status, gender, exceptionalities, language, religion, and sexual orientation) and in a variety of settings (e.g., urban/rural, Supplemental Educational Services [SES], grade levels, and/or the context in which the candidate is employed) as relevant to the specific areas of professional expertise." Consistent with the unit's policy, initial candidates in Introduction to Diversity courses are placed in a highly diverse school and a special day school serving students with exceptionalities. Various assignments across the curriculum focus on integrating and assessing experiences working with other diverse candidates and with P-12 students.

Beginning 2014-2015- planning work for course revisions and revised assessments relative to preparing candidates to participate in Individualized Education Program Teams.

Beginning 2015-2016 implementation of course revisions and revised assessments relevant to preparing candidates to participate in Individualized Education Program Teams.

Does your program prepare special education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
No
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively
Yes

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares special education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

The Early Childhood Unified Program (Bachelors level) and the Early Childhood Residency Program (Post Graduate) are the initial licensure programs with the special education component.

The Early Childhood Unified Residency program prepares special education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively through it's links to Kansas Teacher Licensure standards, as well as to the research-based knowledge within the field of special education. Specifically, students take courses that provide (a) foundational information, such as law, policies/procedures through CI 603- Foundation of Early Childhood Unified and CI 701 - Foundations of Education.; (b) legal, procedural and best practice procedures for developing, using and revising the Individualized Education Program (IEP) and through Assessment and Methods courses (e.g., CI 614, CI 617, CI 721, and CI 733; (c) skills of collaboration and teaming are embedded within the methods courses where they team with parents and other teachers to write IEPs, conduct assessments, etc. (d) assessing and teaching children with varying learning challenges including English Language Learners --found within the methods courses and through CI 711 - Multicultural Education and CESP 701 Introduction to Education Research. Field-based experience courses are required for students to demonstrate they have mastered these skills in practice (e.g., CI 743, CI 744, CI 748, CI 749). Professional research is embedded in the program with CESP 701, CI 849, CI 860, CI 862, and CI 863).

The ESOL program is not an initial licensure program. The goals are to increase the number of candidates that obtain ESOL endorsements and to increase the content knowledge, skills and pedagogical content knowledge of the ESOL candidates. Six students were endorsed in ESOL 2012-2013. Elementary, middle and secondary curriculum programs incorporate specific components of the Sheltered Instruction Observation Protocol (SIOP) model into the course work and field experiences. In addition, a linguistics class is required to meet the needs of English Language Learners.

Beginning 2014-2015- planning work for course revisions and revised assessments relative to preparing candidates to participate in Individualized Education Program Teams.

Beginning 2015-2016 implementation of course revisions and revised assessments relevant to preparing candidates to participate in Individualized Education Program Teams.

Section VII Contextual Information

Please use this space to provide any additional information that describes your teacher preparation program(s). You may also attach information to this report card. The U.S. Department of Education is especially interested in any evaluation plans or interim or final reports that may be available.

At least once a year, each program faculty uses a set of Core Review Questions to review the data to determine the program's overall effectiveness in meeting program standards, unit conceptual framework guiding principles, and NCATE knowledge. Data is also examined for possible improvements to the program, assessments, or unit operations. Each program also establishes a Program Advisory Council, which is made up of various program constituents, but predominately relevant practitioners, who are responsible for providing advice, input, and assistance to the Program Committee. Once the review is completed, a final report is then submitted to the Unit Assessment Committee at the end of spring semester each year. Doris and Ralph Klose left their estate to establish the KLOSE scholarship to be used for math and science education majors in the College of Education. Every year the top three candidates are awarded this scholarship, which pays for tuition, books, and fees during their junior and senior years. Other scholarships and financial aid packages pay for their freshman and sophomore years.
