Over 280,000 Kansas residents were not counted in 2010.

Let's change that number in 2020!

Kansas leads the world in the success of each student.
For each uncounted household in Kansas, the state can miss receiving approximately $52,466.40 in federal funding per home over a 10-year period.

AAI runs data and calculations, prepares for Standard Setting

Standard Setting Event May 19-22

AAI prepares materials for June KSBOE presentation on cut score recommendations

KSBOE reviews materials and makes recommendation at the July KSBOE to accept or reject the cut scores
  - If accepted, AAI will run score reports with cut scores applied – Anticipated release mid August to the field.
  - If rejected, AAI will take the recommendations of Board and move to next steps in partnership with KSDE.
Why are we collecting student writing samples?

- To validate scores against the rubric.
- To improve rater training materials.
- To make sure we have the best test/scoring rubrics possible for our students and that scoring is applied fairly and accurately across Kansas.
KELPA: Grade K and Grade 1
Collection of Student Writing

Step 1: Administer the test.

- You need to fill out the front page of test booklet completely.
  - Name, Student ID, Date of Birth, Building Name, Building Code
Step 2: Score the written responses. Enter the score in the Educator Portal.

- This is the same process as last year.
Step 3: Collection of Student Writing Samples

- You do not have to mail the student responses. You will upload the student written responses in the Educator Portal.

- Specific details on uploading samples will be provided at our Feb. 26th DTC training and written instructions will be sent via KSDE listserv on the 26th!

Opportunities for ELs!

• MIDTESOL is pleased to invite teachers to announce and submit student essays for the Best K-12 ELL Student Essay Award and the Best ELL Student Essay Award.

Topics reflect the 2020 conference theme, "Community at a Crossroads: The Right to Education.

To apply, submit the essay and cover page to Lindsey Simanowitz at lindsey.e.simanowitz@gmail.com by Friday, March 20, 2020 at 5 pm. You will receive confirmation that your submission was received, and winning recipients will be notified by Friday, April 3 at 5 pm.
Opportunities for ELs!

- The Kansas 911 Coordinating Council is updating their statewide public service announcement regarding Text-to-911. This PSA is shared across the state and posted on their website for Emergency Communication Centers to utilize or for the public to view and learn about this technology. The Council is inviting Kansas students to participate in creating the updated PSA. Here is a letter explaining the contest and a list of 911 call summaries from 911 centers across the state who have taken successful text-to-911 calls.

Videos must be submitted to the Council by March 20, 2020.

How awesome would it be to have our English Learners participate in this and possibly even include multiple languages!
